- B. Magistrate Albert L. Norton, Gwinnett County Magistrate Court

INTRODUCTION

4. The terms of § 1983 make plain two elements that are necessary for recovery. First, the plaintiff must prove that the defendant has deprived him of a right secured by the "Constitution and laws" of the United States. Second, the plaintiff must show that the defendant deprived him of this constitutional right "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory." This second element requires that the plaintiff show that the defendant acted "under color of law."
5. To act 'under color' of law does not require that the accused be an officer of the State. It is enough that he is a willful participant in joint activity with the State or its agents," United States v. Price, 383 U.S. 787, 794, 86 S. Ct. 1152, 1157, 16 L. Ed. 2d 267 (1966).
6. A cause of action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 is stated only if a plaintiff alleges both that a defendant's action is "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State" and that the action subjects the plaintiff "to the deprivation of any rights . . . secured by the Constitution and laws" of the United States. a plaintiff also must allege that the defendants conspired or acted jointly or in concert and that some overt act was done in furtherance of the conspiracy. Hoffman v. Halden, 268 F.2d 280, 292-94 (9th Cir.Although
7. Although the judge may be immune from suit, the private parties who conspired with him act "under color of state law" for purposes of section 1983 suits. See Dennis v. Sparks, 449 U.S. 24, 27-29, 101 S. Ct. 183, 186-87, 66 L. Ed. 2d 185 (1980)

Statement of Facts Alleged

8. Plaintiff commenced a claim in Magistrate Court of Gwinnett County, Ga on May 12, 2021 case number 21-M-12968. A case arriving out of an injury incident that happen by returning the company's product to one of the stores of Defendant, Xfinity Comcast. For no reason what so ever, Plaintiff was assaulted by their employees over a mask and as a result they wanted to through the Plaintiff out of the store refusing to release their identity. Being an elder PTSD veteran Plaintiff's anxiety escalated and caused other mental and emotional problems. After sending notice and receiving no response, Plaintiff filed suit under assault, intentional harmful behavior of their employees.
9. On May 25, 2021, Plaintiff completed four subpoenas (see exhibit A), and had the Gwinnett County Sheriff to serve them upon the Defendants. 1. Since the store had customers, Plaintiff subpoenaed the names of a few customers from their data who were in the store around the same time. 2. A subpoena to produce the video footage in store on file that covered the incident around the time of the incident. 3. A subpoena to produce names and address of employees involved that was there so that Plaintiff can send a subpoena to them to show up at the hearing. 4. And a subpoena for a copy of the policy for maintaining video storage.
10. Around June 8, 2021, Defendant's counsel moved to file a Motion to Squash all the Subpoenas on the grounds of Rule 40 of the Uniform Magistrate Court Rules,
11. Plaintiff filed an objection to that move stipulating that subpoenas did not pertain to O.C.G. A. 9-11-27 through 9-11-36 of Rule 40 of the Uniform Magistrate Rules, the Rules of Discovery and the Rule of Evidence was where subpoenas reside. A subpoena is governed under O.C.G.A. 24-10-20 (see exhibit B) through 24-10-29, Rules of Evidence a policy made by the legislators to compel evidence exclusively. The way the authority of the statute reads, if any failure those rules should be enforce.

12. A few days before four months had passed a hearing (see exhibit C) was held on September 23, 2021 at 1:30 pm in court room 1(c), Gwinnett Magistrate Court and the subpoenas still had not been answered. When it was time for Plaintiff to deliver his case, the first issue Plaintiff addressed the magistrate Albert L. Norton was why subpoenas have not been answered and not being enforced. Mainly, O.C.G.A. 24-10-25 (b), Enforcement of Subpoena, “no continuance shall be granted because of failure to respond thereto when the party obtaining them fails to present to the clerk the name and address of the witness so subpoenaed at least six hours before appearance is required.” Up to this very day there were never anything filed for those subpoenas to the court clerk (see exhibit E, final docket).
13. At that point, magistrate Albert L. Norton continues to proceed to hear the case glossing over the main issue about the failure respond subpoenas. The Defendant’s counsel brought in two people as witnesses, and the spoiled edited video footage of the incidence in which at that point were considered spoiled evidence. Plaintiff objected while they continued their show because if the court was not going to scrutinize the status of those subpoenas, everything else was not relevant. Because the Gwinnett Magistrate Court does not entertain motions as stated under their motion rule, the court had to confront the failure at the hearing. Therefore, Plaintiff had no other choice but to wait until the hearing. At the ending of the hearing, the magistrate Albert L. Norton awarded victory to the Defendant’s counsel depriving Plaintiff of a statutory right of due process and equal protection. There’s no other court in the State of Georgia where a party who never responded to a subpoena brings the spoil evidence in a hearing and win the case with no scrutiny from a court to hold such type behavior in contempt.

Subpoena, Policy making Authority or Discretionary Authority

- 14. The Supreme Court decisional law holds that whether an official has final policy making authority is an issue of law to be determined by reference to state and local law/statutes. In O.C.G.A. 24-10-25 (b), Enforcement, clearly states “no continuance shall be granted because of failure to respond thereto when the party obtaining them fails to present to the clerk the name and address of the witness so subpoenaed at least six hours before appearance is required.” That particular statement in the policy gives no authority to the court or judge to make determinations nor discretions. In Plaintiff’s case, none of defendant’s subpoenas were presented to the clerk. In Pembaur v. City of Cincinnati, 475 U.S. 469 (1986), a majority of the Supreme Court held that a single decision by an official with policy making authority in a given area could constitute official policy. In Pembaur, the prosecutor ordered local law enforcers to get two witnesses from private property. Although the local law enforcers had authority of a capias for the two witnesses, they had no search warrant for the premises which caused the prosecutor to be liable. In Plaintiff’s case, the only discretion given in O.C.G.A. 24-10-25 (a), is to consider whether or not the subpoena was served in a timely manner. If served timely and the results was a failure to response, the statute states that “subpoenas may be enforced by attachment for contempt and a fine”. In Plaintiff’s case, magistrate Albert L. Norton gave the win to the Defendant who had some of the failed evidence from Plaintiff’s subpoenas which was a discretionary decision and not by laws of the statute.

The Nexus

15. Both the defense counsel and the magistrate court judge Albert L. Norton hold bar cards (see exhibit F). Attorneys should know and abide by the standards of professional conduct as expressed in applicable law and ethical codes and opinions in the applicable jurisdiction. They also should not permit their professional judgment or obligations regarding the representation of a client to be adversely affected by loyalties or obligations to other, former, or potential clients; by client obligations of their law partners; or by their personal political, financial, business, property, or other interests or relationships that will cause a conflict of interest.
16. Under a great deal of circumstances, there has to be some type relationship between the magistrate Albert L. Norton and the defense attorney William R. Johnson
17. It is highly circumstantial that these two individuals mingle in private together because they both hold bar cards. As a magistrate who oversees claims for the Gwinnett County Magistrate Court, he continues to operate Norton's Law Firm P.C. as an active bar member (see exhibit F). Plaintiff observed in the court room the same day the hearing right before his hearing and this magistrate Albert L. Norton gave every actions of that hearing every legitimate legal reason behind his rulings. When Plaintiff's hearing which was the next, the magistrate whole demeanor changed even when Plaintiff ask about the bases for what he was doing he refused to state any. Take a look at the documents from the case, the notice for hearing is not signed by the clerk, the magistrate's name is nowhere to be found on the case, and he barely wanted to sign the judgment leaving every legal reasoning of his actions blank. When there's no bases or legal reasoning to sustain a magistrate's actions, there's a good chance of nefarious motives and not judicial integrity. If there were any sensible legal reasoning behind this magistrate's actions, this claim would never have to be filed.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

RIGHT TO DUE PROCESS OF LAW; 42 U.S.C. § 1983 FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS; ART. I

- 18. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat. Defendants, owed Plaintiffs a duty under the due process clauses of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, no states shall deprive any "person" of "life, liberty or property" without due process of law. magistrate Albert L. Norton had a duty to enforce Georgia statue 24-10-25 (b), failure to respond to subpoena depriving Plaintiff of a statutory due process right under color of stat law. Plaintiff has the right to a fair and impartial hearing in Georgia courts without being deprived of his due process rights and causing further harm of losing a claim.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

RIGHT TO EQUAL PROTECTION; 42 U.S.C. § 1983 FIFTH AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS; SECTION I

- 19. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth hereat.
- All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

magistrate Albert L. Norton deprived Plaintiff of the equal protection of justice under color of state law from being treated in the same manner as others would be in similar conditions and circumstances. The statute O.C.G.A. 24-10-25 (b) was the final policy authority and not magistrate Albert L. Norton's discretionary decision. The statute is clearly indicating that the law should be enforce by all courts and judges. In the process, magistrate Albert L. Norton deprived Plaintiff of equal protection of justice under color of state law and causing further harm of losing a claim.
